RAGGING IS A CRIME

This is for the information of all the senior students of RIST that they would not indulge/get involved in any activity that may amount to RAGGING. In case any student is found involved in this type of activities, stern disciplinary actions which may include suspension from the classes, expulsion from hostel/institute etc will be taken.

Further, the students are hereby informed that we have strict instructions from Supreme Court, AICTE and also from State Government including NEHU to take all necessary actions to stop any activity that may amount to RAGGING. We have an anti-ragging committee which will be more vigilant henceforth.
